

In 1997, DEM worked with central Rhode Island communities in many ways, such as...in Coventry...acquired the Whipple property providing 29 acres of open space...cooperatively began development of a bikeway greenway along Washington secondary railroad right of way and Trestle Trail...awarded

Our Lady of Szenstochowa parish $22,220 grant to replace septic system...granted $5,100 for Youth Litter Corps workers...assisted town with Earth Day cleanup...collected 7,282 gallons of used motor oil and 1,800 used oil filters from residents through the oil igloo program...in

Cranston...RIDOT/Tasca property redeveloped under Brownfields program...C.O. Hoffacker property redeveloped under Brownfields program...granted funds for pumpout stations at Edgewood Yacht Club, Pawtuxet Cove Marina, Port Edgewood Marina, and Rhode Island Yacht*

Club...cooperatively began development of a bikeway greenway along Washington secondary railroad right of way and Trestle Trail...assisted Bass Bums of RI and Pawtuxet River Authority with Earth Day cleanups...collected 3,355 gallons of used motor oil and 1,000 used oil filters from residents through the oil igloo program...in East Greenwich...East Greenwich Dairy property redeveloped under Brownfields program...awarded

Greenwich Village Association $45,000 grant for sewer extension...granted $5,100 for Youth Litter Corps workers...assisted town and Rocky Hill School with Earth Day cleanups...collected 4,292 gallons of used motor oil and 1,200 used oil filters from residents through the oil igloo program...in Warwick...reopened more *than 275 acres of Greenwich Bay to shellfishing...granted city $10 million loan for sewer extensions...awarded Johnson & Wales University $7,000 for grease trap...Cowesett Corners property redeveloped under Brownfields program...Monet property redeveloped under Brownfields program...90 Byfield Street property redeveloped under Brownfields program...T.H. Baylis Company site assessed under Brownfields program...Pontiac Enterprises site assessed under Brownfields program...held wetlands permit pre-application meeting with city officials on development of city athletic field...continued working with city and the University of Rhode Island on the

Greenwich Bay Initiative...granted funds for pumpout stations at Bay Marina, Carlson Marina, Wharf Marina, Harbor Light Marina, Apponaug Harbor Marina, and Brewer's Yacht Club...cooperatively began development of a bikeway greenway along Washington secondary railroad right of way and Trestle Trail...granted $5,100 for Youth Litter Corps workers...designed comprehensive city-wide solid waste and recycling collection system for city...assisted city and Community College of Rhode Island student government with Earth Day cleanups...collected 11,600 gallons of used motor oil and 3,000 used oil filters from residents through the oil igloo program...in West Warwick...granted $5,100 for Youth Litter Corps workers...cooperatively began development of a bikeway greenway along Washington secondary railroad right of way and Trestle Trail...helped town develop four-day cost-saving solid waste and recycling collection system...collected 3,753 of used motor oil from residents through the oil igloo program...in West Greenwich...granted $5,100 for Youth Litter Corps workers...assisted Appalachian Mountain Club with Earth Day cleanup...collected 3,925 gallons of used motor oil and 1,200 used oil filters from residents through the oil igloo program...in general...served 1,115 households in region through appointments at DEM's household hazardous waste facility...and the work continues...

For information on any of DEM's programs, from consumer information to industrial technological assistance, please call our information line at 222-6800. We're working with you, Rhode Island.

